MU Housing & Dining Contract

Incoming Student Cancellation Fee Schedule

First time college students are required to live in MU housing and may not cancel unless they receive an approved housing policy exemption. Transfer students are not required to live in MU Housing. After the second day of class, transfer students are unable to cancel their contract except for academic reasons.

Students who request to cancel between opening day and the first day of class will:
- Pay a prorated daily charge + $325 cancellation fee
- Students who are approved to cancel and are enrolled at MU will retain 100% of their dining plans

Students who request to cancel beginning the second day of class are responsible for:
- 100% of their housing and dining contract unless they receive an approved housing policy exemption to live in a recognized MU Fraternity & Sorority Life facility
- 40% of their remaining housing and social fee charges through the rest of the academic year
- 100% of their dining plan through the rest of the academic year

Students may cancel their housing and dining contract in the housing portal at: mizzou.us/housing-portal
